

Complaints Policy

If you have wish to make a complaint relating to Cure Parkinson's or its activities, please see below.

What to do if you have a complaint

Of course, you can at any stage contact The Charity Commission, The Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator, the Fundraising Regulator, the Advertising Standards Authority or even the police if you have a complaint at any time (see information below).

However, if you do have a complaint, as a first step please let us know so that we have an opportunity to deal with and resolve the complaint. Please set out your complaint in writing, and send to the charity at will@cureparkinsons.org.uk or our London address (Cure Parkinson's, 120 New Cavendish Street, London W1W 6XX) marked "COMPLAINT" and for the attention of our Chief Executive Officer. If you prefer, please call our London office on 0207 487 3892 and ask for our Chief Executive Officer. We will:

- respond to you within 3 working days to acknowledge your complaint;
- listen to what you have to say to ensure we understand your concerns fully; and
- ensure that a suitably senior supervisory member of our staff investigates your complaint and provides our response in 10 working days.

If it is not possible to provide this in 10 working days, we will explain why and tell you when you can expect a full response.

If you're not happy with the outcome of our investigation, then please contact us within 10 days to ask for your complaint to be reviewed by our CEO directly or (if you prefer) by one of our trustees. Your complaint will then be referred to our CEO or a trustee who will carry out a full review of the complaint and its handling to date, and let you know the outcome within 10 working days.

If you are still unhappy with our decision, you can at any time contact The Charity Commission for England and Wales, The Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator, the Fundraising Regulator, the Advertising Standards Authority or the police as set out below.
